Member-at-large

John Phillip Moreno is the owner of MyMojo Style, a personal styling service based in San Diego. He is a Certified Professional Wardrobe Stylist and Style Coach whose ultimate goal is to serve and empower his clients to show up in the world as their best selves by making getting dressed easy with effortless style. He is a recent graduate of Pivot School's Business of Personal Styling intensive course and attends monthly industry-related conferences to stay an expert in his field. For much of his life, he has been serving and socially conscious. His core belief is that each of us possesses unique gifts that can be used to serve humanity in some way. Whether it be through a local church, business organization, or non-profit he has served in various capacities to brighten his corner of the Universe.

His accomplishments include raising thousands of dollars for Autism Tree Project Foundation from an annual holiday event he originated, being chair of the San Diego Pride Outreach committee for Mission Gathering Church, serving as a key committee member that produced the Rotary Runway Fashion Show fundraiser for National City Rotary, and receiving a Community Outreach Award from the Chula Vista Chamber of Commerce. When he is not styling a client or serving the community he enjoys morning meditation, yoga at the park, travel, coffee shops, taking walks, cycling classes, reading, and journaling. If you know the work of author Brené Brown, you have gleaned into his soul.
