

Shamine K. Linton

Founder/CEO

Shamine believes that "Together we can make this world a better place one action at a time, one day at a time, and one bag at a time." As the Founder/President of Sharia's Closet, Shamine drives the company's vision, strategy and growth as it provides creative and unique solutions to help individuals in need. When Shamine's not working on Sharia's Closet, she works with an organization that specializes in Early Childhood Education. Her sincerity shines through her work ethic and humility. She possesses all the passion and skills necessary to not only help community members but also connect with them in the process.

Shamine uses her leadership skills to identify volunteers' strengths and empower them to advocate for their communities. Shamine's ability to adapt and resilience will ensure that Sharia's Closet continues to grow and expand.

"I live my life with purpose. I have been happily married to my husband Shane for over 25 years. We have a 23-year-old son, Shamari, who is serving in the US Air Force for the past 5 years. Our 15-year-old daughter, Sharia, who the organization was named after. Lastly, Maxie our Maltese mixed puppy rounds out my household.

I believe that community means taking care of each other with good intentions regardless of background or circumstances.
